

International Women's Day 2016

U.S. Consulate General Breakfast Talk

Women Breaking into the Boy's Club

When: March 7, 2016

Time: 9 – 11 am

Where: U.S. Consulate General Frankfurt, Entrance: Wetzlarer Strasse, 60435 Frankfurt am Main

Join the U.S. Consulate General as we mark the 105th International Women's Day with a celebration and breakfast discussion on "Women Breaking into the Boy's Club".

Women still remain underrepresented in a variety of professions despite the strides they have made toward equality in the past 50 years. Our transatlantic talk will focus on how women and girls can be empowered on both sides of the Atlantic in order to pick the jobs they really want to do. American and German approaches for supporting women in traditionally "male dominated" fields and leadership positions will be discussed. Additionally, we will have a look at how peers and family members can be supportive of women and girls joining "the Boy's Club". The short documentary "SHE++" about Stanford's first conference on women in technology by Ayna Agarwal and Ellora Israni will introduce us to the topic.

Erin Noojibail

Gabriele Apfelbacher

"When women get ahead, everyone gets ahead." – Hillary Clinton

Speakers:

Erin Noojibail: Employee Development Officer, National Capital Region, National Park Service. She designs new training opportunities for national park staff and is responsible for learning and development programs.

Gabriele Apfelbacher: Partner at Cleary Gottlieb since 2001. Her work focuses on securities, banking and corporate matters. She has worked both in the U.S. and Germany.

Continental Breakfast will be served

Registration is required. To register, please send an email to FrankfurtPAReservation@state.gov

Kindly note that a picture ID is required for admission. Please plan to arrive early (8.30) at the Wetzlarer Strasse entrance to allow time for getting through security.

Bitte beachten Sie: Einlass für die angemeldeten Gäste ist nur mit gültigem Ausweis möglich. Bitte kommen Sie etwas früher (8.30 Uhr) um genug Zeit für die Sicherheitskontrolle am Eingang zu gewährleisten.